

Top 10 Reasons to join the Maryland Northern Virginia Floor Covering Association

1. Excellent Training events throughout the year focused on product training, installation & job site training, and retail sales person training. Training is supported by industry leaders, affiliated distributors and manufacturers, and independent experts. Many of our training events offer scholarships and training certification.
2. Peer to Peer Networking with associated retailers and contractors within your local area to foster issue discussion and resolution, and best practices.
3. Industry Events throughout the year featuring keynote speakers, industry leaders, and charitable events – most events include a cocktail hour followed by a delicious dinner.
4. Access to one of the industry's finest MDNVA Association Web Sites. Updated information about association events, membership only information, special section for "classified" sales to allow you to sell or buy, and a calendar of events with on-line registration to help you plan your association events.
5. A Voice to be Heard if you would like to share an industry concern or need support from multiple people across many flooring areas.
6. Discounted membership to the WFCA World Floor Covering Association. Membership with this progressive national association that runs similar to the local chapter of the MDNVA.
7. Tremendous Resources to find local training & education support, charitable donation direction, or industry speakers for your own businesses. Learn how the MDNVA can reach out to its suppliers and manufacturers to provide you with the industry's top talent..
8. Technical Hot-Line for immediate assistance (sales and installation). We can offer direct contact with manufacturers and suppliers to provide immediate assistance with all product categories. We can also provide direction through our Board to help resolve issues and field problems.
9. Manufacturer & Distributor Promotions and Programs. See how the MDNVA can provide you, either through the web site or direct to you, special promotions and programs that are either exclusive to the associated members or open to the public but not yet communicated.
10. An Opportunity to Give Back to the Flooring Industry in your own back yard. We are all fortunate to make our living in the flooring industry. Many of us have done this our entire lives. The MDNVA allows you to participate as much or as little as you like. Every member is welcome to actively participate either on the Board of Directors, as Education Coordinators, or to assist with the general administration of the various activities throughout the year.
